

What breed am I?

The truth is, no one really knows. Like most shelter dogs, I'm likely a mix of four or more breeds.

You might want to guess my breeds, and that's OK! (I like to keep people guessing.)

But knowing my breeds won't tell you what you really want to know: Am I sassy or snuggly? Do I love kids and cats? Will I be a great running buddy, or a fellow couch potato?

So ask a staff member what they know about my personality, then take me for a walk and judge for yourself. I could be the perfect mix for you!
